Dear Community:

The year 2018 was another amazing year for the Foundation and I reflect on it with special gratitude as my term on the Foundation Board has come to an end.

It doesn’t seem that long ago that I was the new kid on the Board and now over thirteen years have flown by. During that time, I’ve learned much about our community and the Foundation, and its ongoing mission to invest in the vitality and quality of life in the greater Watertown area.

In 2018, that mission meant awarding more than $500,000 in grants and scholarships. Among those grants was a grant to support Friends of the Goss in the purchase of the Goss Opera House building. I believe that grant was an important step in saving a historic gem in downtown Watertown. We only have to look at our new Boys and Girls Club or the Bramble Park Zoo to see more of the tremendous impact that the Foundation and donors have had on our community. Most of our area non-profit organizations have been supported with grants from the Watertown Area Community Foundation.

This past year was significant for other reasons as well. The Watertown Area Community Foundation staff moved back into our newly remodeled and expanded office at 211 East Kemp. This building has been home to the Foundation since 2002 and was a gift from the Kenneth B. Way family.

The improved and enlarged office will serve our growing Foundation and our community long into the future. With that in mind, the Foundation increased its Board by two at-large members in 2018. Kristen Henderson and Liam Culhane joined our ranks and help us represent our community even more.

I’ve seen the Foundation grow and I am truly grateful for my small part in that. I’ve learned that some organizations you are part of – become a part of you. Although my Board service is over, I look forward to many more years of involvement with the Foundation and its giving circles, Women & Giving and Giving Back 365.

In deep appreciation,

Laurie Benson
2018 Chairperson

The ribbon cutting of the Foundation’s newly expanded and remodeled office was May 23, 2018. The Foundation has had its “home” at 211 E. Kemp Ave. since 2002. The building was a gift from the Kenneth Way family.

Women & Giving supported Watertown Middle School Girls’ Night Out
Grants

Serving the diverse interests of the donors means supporting a wide array of programs and non-profit organizations. It’s all a part of our mission to invest in the vitality of the greater Watertown area that we call “home.” Your gifts and funds make it happen.

A total of $520,946 was awarded in grants and scholarships in 2018. Many of the grants are listed below.

Arts & Culture
SD Symphony, Northern Prairie Arts, Town Players, Watertown Park & Recreation, Artwalk, Thursday Night Live, Mellette Memorial Association, Northeast Artist Network, Northern Prairie Arts, and the Christmas Community Choir Concert. A distribution was also given to the Watertown Concert Association.

Education
The Foundation administers many scholarships. In addition, Lake Area Technical Institute's annual Governor's Luncheon was underwritten by the Foundation. Other grants supporting education included those to: SD News Watch, Arrow Education Foundation, Castlewood, Estelline, Hamlin and Henry school districts.

Health & Human Services
The Boys & Girls Club of Watertown received the largest grant in WACF history. $100,000 of this multi-year $500,000 matching grant was awarded in 2018 and the Club’s new facility is complete. The Human Service Agency, Jenkins Living Center and Prairie Lakes Healthcare System all receive on-going support through Designated Funds at the Foundation. More grant dollars were awarded to: Beacon Center, Watertown Initiative to Prevent Sex Trafficking, Watertown Area Transit, Salvation Army, United Way, My Happy Place, 4-H Saddle Up, Watertown Hockey Association and the Senior Activities Center.

Environment
The Lake Area Zoological Society/ Bramble Park Zoo received support in 2018. More than $7 million has been awarded in total grants since 1981. “Our donors make it happen,” said Jan DeBerg, WACF executive director. “On behalf of the Foundation’s Board members and the grantees, thank you donors for your continuing partnership in our mission.”

Supporters of the historic Goss Opera House in Watertown may have found a way to hit the high notes and maintain sustainability in the heart of downtown. A culmination of efforts has established the Friends of the Goss Foundation.

In doing so, the group has obtained IRS 501 C (3) status as well as the support of the Watertown Area Community Foundation (W ACF) in the form of a $150,000 grant to help purchase the building.

“We have several donors who have designated their funds to support historic preservation, arts and culture, even community beautification,” said Jan DeBerg, WACF executive director.

“We are honoring donors’ wishes as well as responding to the community’s voice during the H2O-20 visioning process,” DeBerg said.

Residents were loud and clear when they put enhancing downtown and community beautification center stage on surveys about their hopes for Watertown’s future, she said.

With that in mind, committees were formed, Artwalk began and a local charrette took place to identify more ways to improve the tapestry of downtown and its offerings.

“I have no doubt this decision would make donors like Vera Way Marghab and Florence Bruhn proud,” DeBerg said. “These funds can work in unison to support the Goss. It’s all a part of ‘looking forward and giving back.’ This grant puts the spotlight on the Foundation’s mission to invest in the vitality of Watertown – a cause we hope the community will continue to applaud.”

The Watertown Area Community Foundation Youth Council began in 2001 with the belief that young people care about others and their community and would like to have a voice in the issues, challenges and opportunities they face both now and in the future. The Council, made up of high school juniors and seniors, is a committee of the Foundation. Members assess the needs of youth in Watertown, make grants to worthwhile youth-serving projects and obtain leadership skills.

As of 2018, the Youth Council has awarded more than $130,000 in grants.

The WACF Board appointed two at-large members in 2018 to better represent a growing Foundation and community.

Since its first meeting in 1979, the Foundation Board has had five members. They are appointed by the Watertown Area Chamber of Commerce, City of Watertown, Watertown School District, and our trustees: Great Western Bank and Wells Fargo Bank NA.

“With the growth of both Watertown and the Foundation, it was time to add to the Board,” said Jan DeBerg, executive director. “This step is truly a milestone for the Foundation. The new at-large members will bring a fresh view and help us serve the greater Watertown area even more.”

Liam Culhane was born and raised in Watertown. He graduated from Watertown High School, SD State University and the University of Colorado Law School. He has been practicing in Watertown with his mother, Nancy, and brother, Seamus, at Turbak Law Office, P.C. and is a member of the Board of Adjusters and a commissioner on the Watertown Planning and Zoning Commission.

“I love this community dearly and I credit Watertown and all its incredible citizens for helping me become who I am today,” Culhane said. “As a younger board member, I feel that I will provide a unique perspective. My mother was a Community Foundation Board member and I would like to continue her legacy of engagement in our community.”

Kristen Henderson is a Watertown native and former WACF Youth Council member. She and her husband Brooks have two children. She volunteers with the Friends of the Goss Foundation Board, EXCITE 21-40, Watertown Area Chamber of Commerce Ag Committee, Kiwanis, and Immaculate Conception Church.

She earned a Bachelor of Science in Biomedical Engineering from the University of Minnesota and Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Illinois. She received her MBA from the University of St. Thomas while working in Research and Development for Boston Scientific in Minneapolis. In late 2016, the Henderson family moved back to Watertown where she joined her family’s business, Midwest Ag & Veterinary Service of Watertown, Aberdeen, Clark, Miller, and Highmore, as general manager.

“The generosity of our community and the cultural and educational opportunities this provides makes me proud to call Watertown home,” Henderson said. “Most importantly, the support our community gives to those who need it most is truly exceptional – it’s an honor to serve on the WACF Board.”

Another new member coming to the Foundation Board in 2018 is Joel Vockrodt. He was appointed by Great Western Bank and fills Lee Schull’s position after Schull’s term ended.

Vockrodt purchased Office Peeps with his wife Jessica in 2009 and currently serves as its President. Vockrodt is a graduate of Watertown High School and Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota. He and his wife have three sons.

Vockrodt has been involved with several state and national organizations, including being Chairman of the Board at Independent Suppliers Group, a cooperative of 400 workplace-products companies that is headquartered in Indianapolis, IN. Locally, he has chaired the Strategic Advisory Council at Lake Area Technical Institute, co-chaired the Watertown Area United Way Campaign, chaired Watertown Area Chamber of Commerce Board, served on the Business Industry School Coalition, has been President of the Watertown Kiwanis Club, and is Boy Scout Troop 8 Assistant Scoutmaster.

“The Foundation has blazed a trail since its beginning as the first community foundation in South Dakota,” Vockrodt said. “I’ve observed how this organization has fostered giving and is making an enormous impact in our community by removing roadblocks for good things to happen, getting worthy endeavors off the ground, and leading our community in big and subtle ways. I am honored to be able to participate as a board member.”
